Talking Cube Clock with Day and Date with Hour Announce

Just press the buttons on the top of the clock and you will hear the time, day and date.

The buttons are very easy to locate on the top of the clock even without looking.

Very small, place anywhere; on a table corner or a shelf.

You won't have to worry about accidentally resetting the clock because the alarms are set on the bottom of the clock.

The perfect time piece for the blind or those with vision difficulties.

ITEM # ats5014

You will never have to ask the day or time again because by just pressing the buttons on the top of the clock you will hear the date and spoken to you with a clear voice.

Example: Press the button to hear "Tuesday, November 27th, 2007" spoken to you from the clock. Press the time button and the time will be spoken to you by a clear male voice.

The date and time buttons are easy to distinguish because they are the only buttons on the top of the clock. No confusion!

An optional hourly report lets you know the time without pressing any buttons. (The "chime on/off" function controls the hourly time report.)

The time and alarms are set using buttons on the bottom of the clock.

This clock with also speak to you as you are setting it. You will hear what buttons you are pressing.
